Superintendent's Highlights

District 394 completed a goal in 2000 that placed a computer in the hands of every teacher, instructional aide and all students grades K-8. In addition a computer was placed in every home that had a child in grades K-12. We are now in the process of updating all these computers to increase speed and memory.

All Instructional Aides completed the Technology Certification this past year and also completed the 3 credits of State Reading requirements and have completed paraprofessional training and certification.
